On May 4, 2021 an F1 tornado struck New Castle Pennsylvania pulling up & tearing the roof of the building. Other exterior damage along with subsequent interior water damage resulted. We tried to work through the claim with the adjuster directly but realized that his interests and ours did not line up. It then that we engaged The Alex Sill Company.

Your company was invaluable in dealing with the insurer. The insurance company pressed hard for us to settle on an unfavorable amount, but your knowledge and experience with the insurance industry and claims process enabled us to obtain a very fair settlement on our terms. The level of detail your staff provided for our claim was something we could not have completed internally.

We would urge any victim of such a devastating loss to give the option of an independent adjuster a hard look and would highly recommend the Alex N Sill Company.
